Photo by Walter Hershey

MONKEY BUSINESS — Earl Edwards and Norman Garry watch one caged monkey at the Hyattstown Firehouse. The monkey, which had a ball swinging from rafter to rafter in the firehouse eluding his pursuers, met his demise under a garbage can wielded by Francis (Buddy) May. Still cavorting in the Hyattstown area are two more monkeys.